

CELEBRATING ATRIUM HOSPITALITY'S RISING STARS

Atrium Hospitality strives to develop diverse top talent through innovative programs like our Employee Resource Group (ERG) and Leader in Training (LIT) initiative. Throughout our national management portfolio of 83 hotels in 28 states, our ERG team encourages an inclusive and respectful work environment. With LIT, our trainees receive instruction, resources and hands-on experience to confidently progress in their individual career paths.

Homewood Suites
by Hilton & Embassy Suites
by Hilton
Greensboro Airport

COURTNEY BARBER

Courtney leads by example, personally training team members to perform to our high standards. During her time in housekeeping management, Courtney has achieved all "Outstanding" brand inspection results.

Embassy Suites
by Hilton
Lexington/UK
Coldstream

JENNA COENE

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Jenna's operational responsibilities expanded to our newly created All Purpose Manager (APM) position. During these challenging times, she's become an even stronger leader.

Embassy Suites
by Hilton
Nashville SE
Murfreesboro

JORDAN GONZALEZ

Jordan works full time in the evenings while attending college during the day to pursue his bachelor's degree. During the pandemic, Jordan has taken on expanded rotating responsibilities across various departments.

Hilton
Fort Collins

NOELLE JOHNSTON

Noelle cross trained in several positions at our Embassy Suites by Hilton Loveland. She has been recognized on multiple occasions for her outstanding performance and commitment to the community.