11:00 a.m. Tasting at Lux Row Distiller

Opened in 2018, Lux Row Distillers is the home of several iconic bourbons. The home of Ezra Brooks, Rebel, David Nicholson, Daviess County, and Blood Oath Bourbons. With over 18,000 sqft., 6 barrel warehouses and a 43-ft custom copper still, Lux Row Distillers is capable of producing 50,000 barrels of bourbon annually.

12:30 p.m. Lunch at Scout and Scholar Brewing

Scout and Scholar Brewing Company is a gathering place. A meetinghouse to share great beer and exceptional food. A spot in the heart of the city that honors its rich history and celebrates the community and traditions yet to come. Named after the two brothers who founded the City of Bardstown, Scout & Scholar celebrates the legacy of William and David Bard and the important role Bardstown played in shaping Kentucky and American history. From the art of storytelling, to a legacy of distilling, to our newest tradition, we continue to elevate the craft of creating here in Bardstown.

1:45 p.m. Tour at Heaven Hill Distillery

Shortly after Prohibition ended in the United States, Heaven Hill Distilleries, Inc., was founded in Bardstown, Kentucky by the Shapira family to produce and market Bourbon and premium American Whiskeys. At the time, it was as speculative a new business venture as the dot com start-ups of the 1990's - a company founded with no brands, no available stocks of Whiskey, and at the height of the Great Depression. Today, the company is the largest independent, family-owned and operated distilled spirits supplier in the country. According to industry analysts, Heaven Hill is now the fifth-largest spirits supplier in the United States and second largest holder of aging Bourbon Whiskey in the world with an inventory in excess of 1,600,000 barrels.

3:00 p.m. Tasting at Preservation Distillery

Welcome to Preservation Farm artisan distillery and small bourbon tasting event venue, where we pot-distill in miniscule 1-3 barrel batches. A hidden treasure in Bardstown, Kentucky, official 'Bourbon Capital of the World'. Preservation is something our family dreamed of for over half a century. We are the first and only 100% pot-distilled producer in Nelson County, Kentucky's Napa Valley for Bourbon. Bourbon Hunting for Pot Distilled, Cask Strength, Single Barrel, Small Batch, Old Bourbon, Rare Whiskey, or Barrel Picks, and love bourbon collecting? You found us

4:30p.m. Tasting at Jim Beam

What makes our bourbon special are the eight generations behind it. Each of our family distillers has a spirit of their own, building on the Beam legacy of those who came before. Genuine, quality ingredients distilled by craftsmen without compromise. That's bourbon made the Beam way. We get to work with world class partners on all kinds of projects. Like protecting our water and inspiring the next generation of bourbon makers. We've been pioneers since day one, and we have no intention of stopping.

Dinner at The Kitchen Table at Jim Beam Distillery

The Kitchen Table is unlike anything else on The Kentucky Bourbon Trail. It is a full-service dining experience that is inspired by the original Beam family kitchen table, a place of storytelling, whiskey sharing and recipes, that will allow visitors to sit down with us and share our family tradition of gathering together around our table.

Breakfast at Dant Crossing

10:00 a.m. Mint Julep Class at My Old Ky Home

Named for America's first composer Stephen Foster's sentimental ballad, "My Old Kentucky Home, Good-Night!," the Federal style mansion commissioned by John Rowan Sr. was completed in the year 1818 and was the centerpiece of a 1,300 acre plantation.

Lyrics to My Old Kentucky Home

The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home, Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corn-top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom
While the birds make music all the day.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor
All merry, all happy and bright;
By 'n by hard times comes a knocking at the door
Then my old Kentucky home, Good-night!

Chorus:

Weep no more my lady.
Oh! Weep no more today!
We will sing one song
For my old Kentucky home
For the old Kentucky home, far away.

Second Verse

They hunt no more for the possum and the coon; On the meadow, the hill, and the shore, They sing no more by the glimmer of the moon; On the bench by the old cabin door.
The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart; With sorrow where all was delight. The time has come when the people have to part;
Then, my old Kentucky home,
good night
Chorus

Third Verse

The head must bow and the back will have to bend; Wherever the people may go. A few more days and the trouble all will end; In the field where the sugar canes grow.
A few more days for to tote the weary load; No matter, 'twill never be light.
A few more days till we totter on the road;
Then, my old Kentucky home, good night!
Chorus

11:30 a.m. Lunch at Bardstown Bourbon Company

The Bardstown Bourbon Company is a New Blend of Bourbon Makers, pushing the boundaries through innovation, while honoring the traditional art of making whiskey. In the heart of the Bourbon Capital of the World[®], we produce the highest-quality Kentucky bourbon, whiskey, and rye brands as well as offer custom whiskey production through our one-of-a-kind Collaborative Distilling Program.

12:30 p.m. Tasting at Bardstown Bourbon Company

2:30 p.m. Tasting at Log Still Distillery

It's been said that the greatest moment of any journey is the turn you make that points you toward home. For us, the horizon holds Gethsemane and southern Nelson County, Kentucky. The place we were raised – and the people we call neighbors. New in structure and substance, yet built on the time-honored foundations of faith, family, and community.

At Log Still Distillery, the road ahead is filled with opportunity and fueled by strong bourbon and even stronger family and community bonds. It's our hope that many lifelong memories will be made here. And that visitors will share stories of a journey on a new road, to a new place that felt very much like the home of an old friend.
